

1. Introduction

Vellpay values the privacy and security of personal information and business data and is committed to handling information obtained in connection with the provision of payment and related services in a responsible, transparent, and secure manner.

This Privacy Policy explains how Vellpay collects, uses, shares, retains, and protects relevant information in connection with merchant onboarding, Know Your Business (KYB) verification, payment transaction processing, risk management, compliance reviews, website access, and other activities related to Vellpay's services.

This Policy applies to Vellpay merchants, merchant representatives, ultimate beneficial owners (UBOs), relevant transaction participants, website visitors, and other relevant individuals involved in the use of Vellpay's services.

2. Information We May Collect

Depending on how you interact with Vellpay and the services you use, we may collect the following categories of information:

2.1 Identity and Contact Information

This may include:

- Basic identity information such as name, date of birth, and nationality.
- Email address, telephone number, and other contact information.
- Identity documents, passports, or other identity verification materials.
- Position, responsibilities, and authorization information within a business.

2.2 Business and KYB Information

During merchant onboarding and ongoing compliance reviews, we may collect:

- Company name, registration information, and basic corporate details.
- Information relating to shareholders, directors, authorized representatives, and ultimate beneficial owners (UBOs).
- Business ownership and control structure.
- Business licenses, authorization documents, or other business qualification information, where applicable.
- Information relating to the business website, products, services, and business model.
- Other information reasonably required to complete KYB, AML/CTF, risk assessments, or other compliance reviews.

2.3 Transaction and Payment Information

When providing PayIn, PayOut, and related payment services, we may process:

- Transaction amount, currency, time, and transaction status.
- Payment method and payment channel information.
- Information relating to payers or recipients.
- Bank account, payment account, or other payment information necessary for transaction processing.
- Transaction reference numbers and related transaction records.
- Information relating to refunds, disputes, failed transactions, or risk reviews.

2.4 Technical and Device Information

When you access the Vellpay website, platform, or related services, we may automatically collect certain technical information, including:

- IP address.
- Browser and device type.
- Operating system.
- Login and access records.
- Page visit and interaction information.
- Device- or network-related identifiers.
- Technical information reasonably required to protect account, platform, and transaction security.

2.5 Compliance and Risk Information

For AML/CTF, fraud prevention, sanctions screening, and other risk management activities, we may collect or generate:

- KYB, Customer Due Diligence (CDD), and Enhanced Due Diligence (EDD) review information.
- UBO and business ownership information.
- Sanctions and politically exposed person (PEP) screening results.
- Source of funds or source of wealth information, where applicable.
- Transaction risk indicators, unusual transaction information, and internal risk assessment results.
- Information relating to fraud, disputes, complaints, or other compliance investigations.

3. Sources of Information

We may obtain relevant information through the following sources:

- Directly from merchants, merchant representatives, or relevant individuals.
- Generated through the use of the Vellpay website, platform, PayIn, PayOut, or other related services.
- From payment service providers, banks, or other business partners.
- From identity verification, KYB, AML/CTF, sanctions screening, or risk management service providers.
- From lawfully accessible public information sources or other appropriate sources.

4. How We Use Information

Vellpay may use the information collected for the following purposes:

- To provide, maintain, and improve Vellpay's payment and related services.

- To complete merchant onboarding, KYB, and identity and business verification.
- To process PayIn, PayOut, settlement, refunds, and other related transactions.
- To conduct AML/CTF controls, sanctions screening, fraud prevention, and risk management.
- To monitor, identify, and investigate unusual or suspicious transaction activity.
- To handle customer support, complaints, disputes, and other service requests.
- To maintain the security of platforms, accounts, systems, and transactions.
- To prevent fraud, abuse, unauthorized access, or other unlawful activity.
- To meet applicable legal, compliance, audit, or other necessary requirements.
- To analyze and improve the performance, reliability, and user experience of Vellpay's services.
- To communicate with merchants and relevant contacts regarding necessary service and business matters.

Vellpay will not use collected information for purposes that are not reasonably related to those described in this Policy unless appropriate authorization has been obtained or another reasonable basis exists.

5. Cookies and Similar Technologies

The Vellpay website may use cookies and similar technologies to support normal website operation, security protection, user experience optimization, and necessary website analytics.

Cookies may be used to:

- Maintain the normal operation of the website and related functions.
- Remember necessary user preferences or settings.
- Analyze website access and usage.
- Identify unusual access and enhance website security.
- Improve website performance and user experience.

Users may manage or restrict certain cookies through their browser settings. Disabling certain necessary cookies may affect the normal use of the website or related functions.

If Vellpay subsequently uses analytics, marketing, or other non-essential cookies that require user consent, appropriate choices or management mechanisms will be provided in accordance with applicable requirements.

6. Sharing and Disclosure of Information

Vellpay does not sell personal information as a primary commercial purpose.

When providing services or carrying out necessary operational, compliance, and risk management activities, relevant information may be shared, to a reasonable and necessary extent, with:

- Payment service providers, banks, and other payment or financial service partners.
- KYB, identity verification, AML/CTF, sanctions screening, and fraud prevention service providers.
- Cloud service, information technology, security, data storage, and other necessary technology service providers.
- Professional advisers, auditors, or other necessary professional service providers.
- Parties entitled to obtain relevant information under applicable legal, regulatory, judicial, or other requirements.

Vellpay will take reasonable measures, based on the nature and risk of the relevant services, to require relevant service providers to appropriately protect the information they process.

7. Data Transmission

As Vellpay provides payment and related services across multiple markets, Vellpay will take reasonable protective measures in accordance with applicable requirements when transmitting information, such as data masking and encryption, to help ensure an appropriate level of security and privacy protection for the relevant information.

Information transmission may occur in connection with payment processing, technology services, risk management, compliance reviews, data storage, or other activities necessary for the provision of Vellpay's services.

8. Data Retention

Vellpay will retain relevant information for a reasonably necessary period based on the purposes for which the information was collected, business operational needs, risk management needs, and applicable requirements.

Retention periods may vary depending on:

- The type and sensitivity of the information.
- The period required to provide the relevant services.
- KYB, AML/CTF, transaction, dispute, and risk management needs.
- Security, fraud prevention, or audit needs.
- Other applicable retention requirements.

When relevant information no longer serves a reasonable business, compliance, security, or other necessary purpose, Vellpay will take appropriate measures, as applicable, to delete, anonymize, or otherwise process the information.

9. Information Security

Vellpay takes reasonable technical and organizational measures to protect the information it processes against unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, loss, misuse, or destruction.

Such measures may include:

- Appropriate security protections during data transmission and storage.
- Authentication and access controls.
- System, network, and account security measures.
- Logging, anomaly monitoring, and risk detection.
- Reasonable restrictions on access to sensitive information.
- Necessary security and risk management requirements for relevant service providers.

Although we take reasonable security measures, no method of transmission over the Internet or electronic storage can be guaranteed to be completely secure.

10. Your Rights and Choices

Subject to applicable requirements and the circumstances, relevant individuals may have the right to:

- Request information about whether Vellpay processes information relating to them.
- Request access to relevant personal information.
- Request correction of inaccurate or incomplete information.
- Request deletion of certain personal information.
- Request restriction of or object to certain information processing activities.
- Withdraw consent where the relevant processing is based on consent.
- Make choices or adjustments regarding certain communications or cookie settings.
- Raise questions or complaints regarding the processing of personal information.

Certain requests may be subject to limitations arising from identity verification, AML/CTF, transaction record retention, security, fraud prevention, or other necessary requirements.

To submit a relevant request, please contact us using the contact details set out in this Policy.

11. Information Relating to Minors

Vellpay's services are intended for businesses and commercial use and are not designed for minors.

We do not intentionally provide services directly to minors through Vellpay's business payment services or actively collect information from minors.

If we become aware that such information has been inappropriately submitted, we will take appropriate measures based on the circumstances.

12. Third-Party Services and Links

The Vellpay website or services may contain links or connections to third-party websites, payment channels, or other third-party services.

The processing of personal information by third parties is governed by their own privacy policies and applicable terms. Vellpay recommends that users review the relevant third party's privacy policy before using such services.

13. Changes to This Privacy Policy

Vellpay may update this Privacy Policy from time to time to reflect changes in services, business operations, technology, risk management, compliance requirements, or information processing practices.

The updated Privacy Policy will apply from the date of publication or another effective date specified separately.

If a relevant change materially affects how personal information is processed, Vellpay may provide appropriate notice based on the circumstances.

14. Contact Us
